

The United States Junior Chamber Ambassador Honor Program

Since 1976, Junior Chamber chapters in every state have recognized their finest members by presenting them with the prestigious Ambassador honor. This life-long honor recognizes those who have served the United States Junior Chamber and their community with highest distinction and greatest contribution. Thank that special individual for their outstanding service, involvement, and commitment by nominating them as an Ambassador — the highest honor bestowed on a Jaycee.

U.S. JUNIOR CHAMBER'S HIGHEST HONOR

Recognition programs are a fundamental part of the Jaycee movement. The U.S. Junior Chamber has established an honor program, which not only recognizes its own outstanding members past and present, but also allows a method of building and maintaining permanent records of these people as part of the Junior Chamber heritage. Through this program, the local, state, and national Junior Chamber organizations bestow upon their candidates the title of Ambassador, the highest of Junior Chamber honors. The Ambassador Honor program supplies the recognition deserved by so many outstanding past and present Junior Chamber members.

CRITERIA

In order for a Junior Chamber member to be considered for the honor, several guidelines have been established as far as a candidate's qualifications.

- The Ambassador honoree must display a record of outstanding service and involvement
- The Ambassador honoree must have been a three-year member in good standing
- The Ambassador honoree must have served one year on a local Junior Chamber Board of Directors or have served one year on a state Executive Committee.

PRIVILEGES

Participation in the Ambassador Honor program requires that the sponsoring local or state organization contribute $150 per honoree to The U.S. Junior Chamber Honor Program. The Ambassador receives an Ambassador pin, numbered certificate and membership card. On a broader scale, Ambassador Honor Program fees provide for funding of The U.S. Junior Chamber programs and the development of new membership programs.
